What to Wear

Wear layers you can easily remove as the day warms up.
No bulky coats.

Study shoes and thick socks are a plus!

Equipment Provided

Helmets and harnesses will be provided for activities to keep you safe. Always wear equipment as instructed by Camp Kern staff!

Zip Lining

Midwest's largest zip lining canopy tour! You'll complete multiple zips through the trees, ending when you began.

Tango Tower

Take on a challenge up in the trees, tackling a number of obstacles including a climbing wall!

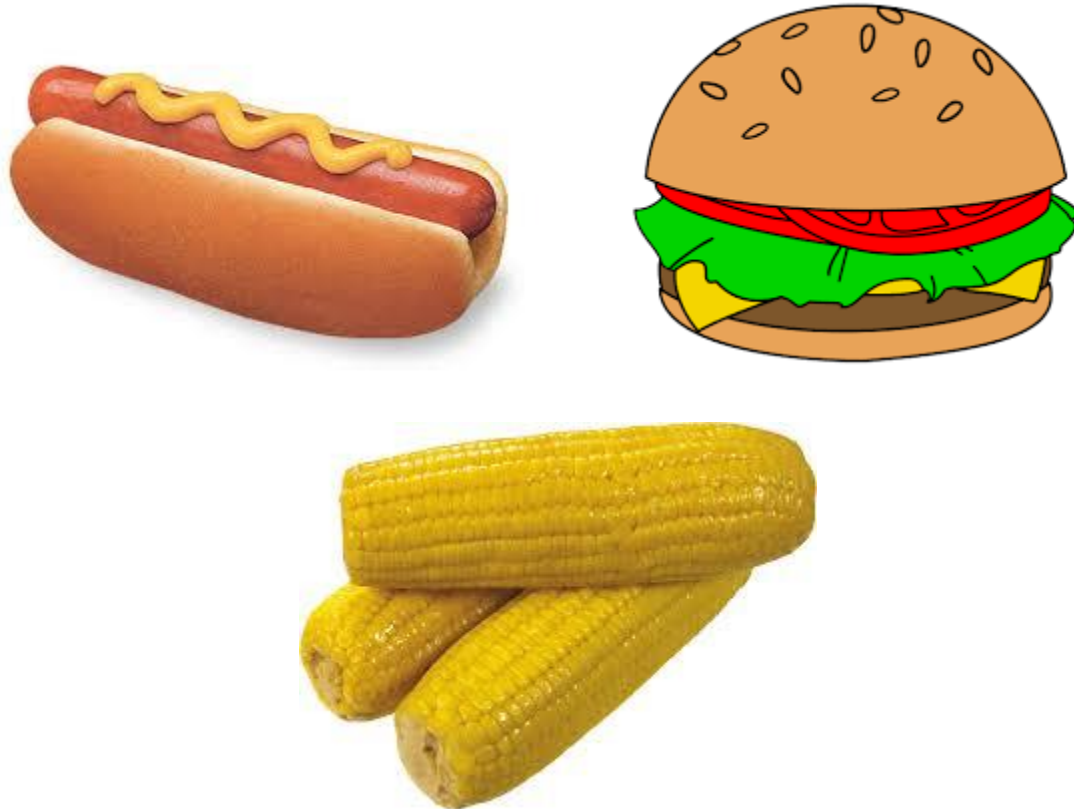

Obstacle Course

Work as a team through this low ropes/obstacle course that works your physical and mental skills.

As always, lunch will be provided!

Camp Kern will provide a cookout lunch of hot dogs, hamburgers, corn on the cob, potato chips, cookies, and lemonade for all participants. Veggie burgers are available as well.

We'll see you on SUNDAYS in April at Camp Kern!
